FEIRLEY (Farley) — In loving memory of a dear mother and father, Mary Ann and Archibald Feirley, who passed away July 21, 1946 and April 10, 1911; also my two dear brothers, Archie and John, who passed away Nov. 25, 1942 and April 23, 1962. There is no parting from those we loved
No distance can divide,
For today in memory's garden
We still walk side by side.
—Daughter Bessie, Son-in-law Sydney, Gordon and Edna.

GILLAM—In loving memory of my dear mother, Caroline Gillam, who passed away July 22, 1961.
If I had all the world to give,
I'd give it, yes, and more,
To hear her voice and see her smile
And greet her at my door.
But all I can do, dear mother,
Is go and tend your grave,
And leave behind tokens of love
To the best mother God ever made.
I like to think, when life is done,
Wherever heaven may be,
That she'll be standing at the door
Up there to welcome me.
—Ever remembered, Daughter Lil.

A STAR in a burlesque show seldom forgets her lines. The baldheaded man in the third row remembers them too.

SOME PEOPLE may think those compact cars too small. But we cannot help but wonder after reading a news item from California: After a compact car struck a tree, there emerged from the vehicle, a mother and her four children, plus another mother and her nine children. At the outset, her parents were divided on their daughter's plans to parachute. "What mother said, couldn't be printed", recalled Carole, but her father being ex-airforce was all for the idea.

by the late Alexander Smith

was born in the village of Cressy on July 28, 1826, and died in the city of Belleville on March 8, 1899. His ancestors were U. E. Loyalists, who in such numbers settled in the county of Prince Edward during the stirring times of 1787. Bro. Dingman was converted in his native village when a boy of sixteen, and at once seems to have entered upon active work for God. For a time he taught the Indian school at Alimwick, and, like many of his brethren, he graduated from the profession of teacher to that of minister. His name appears for the first time in our Minutes in 1853, and stands in connection with the Lindsay Circuit. He was ordained for special purposes in 1856, and received into full connection in 1857. During his ministry of thirty years he was appointed to fifteen circuits, on all of which he saw results to his labors. Bro. Dingman was a man of deep and earnest piety. He lived near to God, and God owned and used him in the extension of his kingdom. He was most pronounced in his views, held very decided opinions on all moral questions, and stated them frankly and fearlessly. What was wrong, was wrong in his judgment, and no matter what its surroundings and associations, was to be condemned and assailed. For many years he was the secretary of the Belleville Ministerial Association. As such he exercised a watchful care and vigilance over the moral and spiritual welfare of the city. All municipal legislation was scanned to ascertain its bearing upon the morals of the city, and when anything injurious and hurtful was discovered, it was sure to be brought up at the association, and a resolution, condemnatory of it, submitted. He was an ardent and untiring champion of the cause of temperance, and in all the contests, local, Provincial and Federal, for the advancement of that cause, his voice was heard and his influence felt. About sixteen years ago, owing to failing health, he was compelled to superannuate. He selected Belleville as the place of his retirement. And here, esteemed and respected by all, he passed his declining years. The end came gradually. He was not unconscious of its approach. He cheerfully and fearlessly referred to it. There was nothing uncertain or doubtful about the issue. All was well, and on the morning of March 8, 1899, he was not, for God had taken him.

He was married to Emily E. A. Foster, of Bath, on June 14, 1857, who, through all the joys and sorrows, the trials and triumphs of his long ministry, proved to be a true helpmeet. She and three sons and three daughters survive him, gladdened by the memories of the past, and cheered by the prospect of a reunion beyond in God's good time.

OUR ANCESTRY

As given by Rev. G. J. Dingman who was born in Prince Edward County in 1826.

On my father's side, both grandfather and grandmother were German and never spoke English. My father and all the family, while at home spoke German, at the same time mingling with others learned English. The old stock first settled near Albany, N. Y., and at the time of the Revolution, grandfather Dingman and Jacob Shibley, cousin of my grandmother, who was a Shibley, were the only ones--married couples--who sided with George IV--remaining British & hence with others as W. E's. came to Canada in 1787. The first contingent coming four years sooner, in 1784.

On mother's side I think grandfather Schmidt--Smith in time the name became--came likely with the Dingmans and Shibleys, and married in this country;--Mother's grandfather being an Irish Captain under George III--and mother's grandmother, a French lady from Paris, France; and as I never heard of any Roman Catholics in the family, was doubtless a Huguenot, pronounced in two syllables only. Thus Hoogno--Hoognos, not Hug-e-nots. So my mother was $\frac{1}{2}$ German, her father being Schmidt and her mother $\frac{1}{4}$ Irish & half French, so I am $\frac{6}{8}$ German, $\frac{1}{8}$ Irish and $\frac{1}{8}$ French.

We certainly ought to be pretty good with "parentage."
